

NEW GUNS

You are in the local mercantile examining a new rifle you have had your eye on. The night before you had some trouble in the saloon from a local drunk who thought you were looking at him in a bad way. He warned you that he was coming after you, but you wrote it off as the ramblings of a drunken lunatic. As you are admiring the finish on the rifle, you hear a shot in the street and a man calling you out. It is time to punch a bully in the nose.

Starting line: “I see you aren’t any smarter or sociable when you’re sober.”

Shooter will start with hands flat on the counter and both hands straddling the rifle. Rifle and shotgun are staged on the counter. At the start signal, shooter will retrieve rifle and engage rifle targets in a Lawrence Welk sweep (1-2-2-3-3-3-4-4-4-4). Discard rifle on rest, draw pistols, and engage pistol targets in the same manner as the rifle. Holster pistols, retrieve shotgun, and engage shotgun targets until down.
